

A. D. 2010 - The Body of Christ

Hurry Up and Wait

Regardless of the outcome of our weekend with Charlie Sells (youth ministry candidate) and his beloved, Hayley, the church family experience of last weekend was affirming all around, and exhilarating for some of us. I have my preferences for how this plays out, even if we have to do that military thing of “hurry up and wait” on decisions and prayers and moving God’s hands. Yet, I share with you that this Youth Ministry Search team has put together meaningful time that has brought together youth and adults and brought us face to face with the Spirit, and I have been nothing but built up and encouraged by the heart that they exposed which belongs to this church.

Yeah, team! Yes, Argyle!

That Spirit is present, sometimes quite active, sometimes somewhat latent, in several ministry areas here. I love it when a gifted soul or two can coach and coax disciples to engage the spiritual resources the Father has given us. The preacher says on Pentecost,

The promise is for you, and for your children ... everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him” (Acts 2:39).

There is a time to be in awe of the presence of God that the Spirit represents to us, and there is a time to enjoy that with a measure of comfort and reassurance, that, indeed, Jesus has not left us as orphans (John 14:18)! So, will we sense his guidance, his affirmation, even his approval as we set our lives before him, first for blessing, and then for being his partners! This sense that God is with us in this process is the gift the search team has left us! It whets my appetite! - Ken

Sermon Notes

Kenneth Mick

An Invitation: More Than We Bargained For

Luke 5:27-32

1. The call (invitation) is specific and pointed:

“follow me.”

This is discipleship.

2. Levi: the response

He left everything for Jesus;

He honored Jesus;

He shared Jesus.

3. Criticism: What company do you keep?

4. Jesus comes to call (invite) – not righteous –

but sinners.

(Finish it: to repentance.)

He will not leave us as we are.

Henesi Barrington has been in the hospital this week with colon problems and for the removal of her gall bladder.

Items Needed for the Nicaragua Trip from June 12-20

The items are needed by May 5th. There are boxes in the front foyer for your donations:

Canes, foldable walkers, crutches, extra large safety pins for diapers, children's tylenol (expiration date 12/10), nasal saline in bottles, 36 cloth diapers, crayons, children's tooth brushes, Ibuprophen (expiration 12/10), natural tears, reading glasses from the dollar store. (There will be a work day on May 8 in the fellowship hall to package 50,000 vitamins and assemble activities for the VBS projects.)

Another Charitable Project

Gerry Thompson spoke to Olen Markum about collecting winter clothing for her church who plan to send the items to Chile. Olen is placing a box in the foyer. The items requested are winter clothing (especially children clothing), tents, baby diapers, elderly diapers, blankets and rolls of plastic sheeting.

Donations for our Pantry

Our pantry has gotten very low and we would greatly appreciate your assistance in re-stocking. The types of items we need are: canned meats (tuna fish, chicken, spam), standard brands of peanut butter, jelly, nutritional breakfast bars, cereal (preferably healthy types such as Cheerio's, etc), canned fruit, canned vegetables (EXCEPT FOR CORN AND GREEN BEANS, WE HAVE PLENTY OF THOSE), and baby items such as jars of baby food and disposable diapers. Again, your assistance will be greatly appreciated.

Child Protection Class

The Child Protection Training class IS TODAY immediately following worship assembly.

Ladies Retreat Friday & Saturday, April 23 & 24
