

A. D. 2010 - The Body of Christ

Even if You Don't Do Football

Late this afternoon, we will gather in the fellowship hall at 5:15 PM for our devotional time. We'll encourage each other with song and prayer and Scripture. There may even be in the "word of exhortation" a challenge for us, to set us up in this week to be aware of where God is showing up to affirm his love for us and a time for the Father to urge us on in his will.

Then we will share in God's blessings of food. Again and again in the Scriptures, sharing in the meal with each other is a confession that we share in life together, and that our lives are open to one another for mutual blessing and edification. No one lives to himself; no one dies to herself. "We are the Lord's" (Romans 14:8). Being at the table gives us an opportunity to remind ourselves again that we belong to each other as the body of Christ.

And you thought this was about football! The Colts and the Saints are really peripheral – you don't really mean that! – ... I do. They may be the moment the world stops tonight, and the game will be the obsession of sports talk for the week, and then life goes on and the bills come in the mail. But the life we share in together goes on forever. We hope you will invest in our body of Christ relationships and be among us tonight.

Readings for February

We have adjusted the reading schedule we supply every month, available at the welcome center and at various tables through the building. There is some purposeful repetition in it; commit to it for the month of February and let Ken know if it was helpful to you!

Missing!

There are a few things missing around the church building and we would just like to ask if you know where they may be. First, a power cord with adapter for the battery operated carpet sweep is missing from Bobbie Shinholser's class room. If you know the whereabouts, please contact Bobbie. Secondly, we noticed several months ago that the church's 4-wheeled walker with a seat and basket in front is missing. Please let the office know if you are still using it. Frequently our seniors have an immediate need for a walker. Your assistance is greatly appreciated.

A special "thank you" to all who attended the lunch and meeting last Sunday. Over 150 men, women and children were present to show their support for this ministry.

- A big THANK YOU to Kevin & Linda VanDerwerken who prepared the meal.
- A special thanks to Betty Guthrie, Pam Smith, Janet Gardner, Kathryn Mick and the many teens who provided child care during the meeting.
- It was also wonderful to have so many people help remove ALL the furniture off the carpets in the fellowship hall so the carpets could be cleaned.

It would not have been a successful meeting with out everyone's assistance.
